TRAVEL COUNCIL HOPES TO RENT STATION ROOM

The board of directors of the Gettysburg Travel Council meeting Tuesday night in the office of the Chamber of Commerce in the Plaza Building voted to rent the former Railway Express room in the Western Maryland Railway station on Carlisle St. as a headquarters for the council.

Need for a headquarters was stressed at the meeting, and the railroad station, which was there when Lincoln arrived in Gettysburg for his famous dedicatory address here, "will be a historic spot as well as a central location," President Allen Larson said.

If the room is made available, the Travel Council hopes to arrange for renovation so that it can serve as a place for tourists to rest as well as serving as a central office for the travel council. It is hoped to have available there pictures of historic spots in the area as well as information for use of visitors. Materials for distribution throughout the U. S. would also be available at the office.

Have Over 70 New Members
Reports at the meeting indicated that "more than 70" new members have been secured during the current membership drive of the Travel Council. Officials said that number was in addition to last year's membership and "indicates an interest of the general public in helping further the aim of securing more tourists for Gettysburg."

Increased tourist trade "will help the entire community. It brings money into the town, and not only those who are affected directly profit from the increased business, but the increased business in the community eventually affects everyone," President Larson said.

President Larson was asked by the directors to discuss with the retail Merchants Association plans of that group to enlarge a publication given to tourists at the Information Booth operated by the merchants on Lincoln Square during the summer.

The next general meeting of the Travel Council will be held March 29 at the Lee-Meade Inn.

Drives Burning Truck Clear Of Terminal Garage

Quick action by Clarence Stansbury, Ottomata, prevented what might have been a worse fire Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock when Stansbury's truck-tractor was burned at Pitzer's terminal at Asper.

Firemen from Aspers and Bendersville extinguished the fire in the tractor by using foam. Damage to the vehicle was estimated by firemen at $2,600.

Stansbury had driven the tractor, which is one of a number leased by the Pitzer trucking outfit, into the repair shop at the terminal and a part was being welded when the vehicle burst into flames.

Stansbury, despite the fire, jumped into the cab of the truck and backed it out of the repair shop into the open area at the terminal. Firemen said they believed that, had the truck not been removed, the repair shop and possibly other buildings at the terminal might have caught fire from the blazing vehicle. Firemen said Stansbury showed "great courage in his successful attempt to remove the truck from the shed despite the fact that it was ablaze at the time."

Betting Bill Is Doomed To Death

HARRISBURG (AP)—A major sponsor of a bi-partisan bill for a statewide referendum on the issue of legalizing horse race betting in Pennsylvania gave up the fight today.

Sen. G. Robert Watkins (R-De) said he would move Monday to send the measure back to the Senate Law and Order Committee.

Asked by a reporter if the bill would go back to committee to be killed, Watkins replied:

"As far as I'm concerned," Watkins said the major reason for dropping the fight to pass the measure was a difference over whether the referendum should be held at a primary or general election.

"The Democrats want the referendum in the primary and we want it in November," Watkins said.

FIRE POLICEMEN VOTE AGAINST RED LIGHT BILL

The Adams County Fire Police, at their meeting in East Berlin Monday evening, voted to oppose planned legislation which would provide for red lights and sirens on cars of auxiliary police and fire police throughout the state.

Charles W. Culp Jr., president of the county fire police group, said today that the members felt placing of red lights and sirens on the cars of the "thousands" of fire police throughout the state would tend to defeat the purpose for which sirens and red lights are installed on fire trucks, ambulances, police cars and other emergency vehicles, that the appearance of "too many" vehicles equipped with "lights and sirens" during an emergency would "confuse the public."

Fire police and firemen are able to get through to their destinations quickly by using the blue lights which have been a customary fixture of the firemen's and fire police cars. Police, seeing the blue light on cars, clear the way for them, permitting them to get to their destination quickly in emergencies. In addition the general public has become accustomed to the use of the blue lights on such vehicles and permit the fire police vehicles to pass.

The legislation now being considered by the state is a bill sponsored by Adams County Assemblyman Francis Worley. Previously the Adams County Fire Chiefs' Association had gone on record as opposing the use of red lights and sirens on fire police cars.

A moment of silence in memory of Gerald Hawn, New Oxford fire police member fatally injured in an auto accident during the month, was observed. East Berlin Fire Chief J. Calvin Lerew welcomed the fire police. The next meeting will be held April 11 at Cashtown.

RAYMOND SOHL DIES IN SOUTH

Raymond M. Sohl, 53, York R. 6, monumental dealer, and former alderman in York, died at 9:30 p.m. Monday in Hialeah Hospital, Miami, Fla., where he was a patient for a month after being stricken with a coronary occlusion.

Mr. Sohl and his wife, the former Sara Kelly, were vacationing in Florida since December 1.

Mr. Sohl was appointed alderman in March, 1948, by former Gov. James H. Duff to succeed the late Walter P. Owen. He operated a monumental dealer business at York R. 6 and in Gettysburg.

He was a veteran of World War II and a member of Zion Lutheran Church and Sunday School and York Lodge of Elks.

A graduate of York High School and Patrick's Business College, Mr. Sohl was an accountant and at one time served as office manager for Webster-Eisenlohr company, a cigar manufacturing firm.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Robert, of Columbus, O., and a daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Bjork, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Three grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Edna Radcliffe, and Mrs. Edwin C. Fehl, both of York, and Mrs. W. Finley, of Philadelphia.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete Tuesday night.

L. R. Murtorff Will Is Filed For Probate

The will of Lizzie R. Murtorff, late of Huntingdon Twp., was filed for probate Tuesday with the register and recorder. It names Edith M. Murtorff, now Edith M. Weidner, Gardners R. 2, who is described as a grand-niece of her late husband, as both the heir and executrix of her estate.

Mrs. Murtorff died March 5 at the age of 86. The value of her estate is estimated at $1,550, including a 6½-acre tract of land with dwelling and barn in Huntingdon Twp.

DR. HENSLEY IS SPEAKER FOR SR. CLUB'S DINNER

Dr. Marvin M. Hensley, assistant professor of biology at Gettysburg College, was the speaker Tuesday evening at the annual banquet of the Adams County Senior Extension Club held at the Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church here.

Dr. Hensley gave an illustrated talk on desert life in the southwestern United States, showing the animals and reptiles native to that section and pictures of the desert area. He concluded his talks by from the area.

George Stock, president of Senior Extension Club, served as toastmaster. The invocation was given by the Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox. Group singing was led by Edwin Starn with Irene Crouse at the piano.

Reviews Activities
Mervin Myers, vice president of the club, gave a review of the activities of the organization during the year. As a result of its activities, the club is one of six throughout the state to be awarded two scholarships to the Tri-State conference this spring, Myers said.

Myers said that among activities during the last year was a series of group discussions on world affairs, participation in the District Folk Festival, participation in last year's Tri-State Senior Extension conference and the Rural Talent Festival at the Farm Show, an appearance on a Farm Bureau anniversary telecast, an exhibit at the South Mountain Fair, and such social activities as box socials, picnics, a moonlight cruise, conduct of a chicken barbecue and various swimming parties, bowling matches, trips and similar events.

Memberships at the present time is 57. Vice President Myers reported that the club is planning to hold a picnic at the farm show.

"Kiwanis Club Of Historic Gettysburg" Given Charter

Gettysburg's fifth service club, the Kiwanis Club of Historic Gettysburg, received its charter Tuesday evening at a dinner in the National Guard Armory here that attracted nearly 300 Kiwanians and their ladies from many sections of Pennsylvania and from Maryland.

President Ernest Krape received the charter from Past District Governor Sam Wagner of Erie as the climax to the three-hour program. Wagner was district governor when the club here was initiated last December.

Burgess William G. Weaver officially welcomed the assemblage to Gettysburg and then extended a welcome to the new service club in this community. "You are joining an illustrious company," Burgess Weaver said. "We need and appreciate the leadership of the service clubs in our community. By joining their ranks, you are making our town that much better."

High School Choir Sings
In his response, President Krape said: "We have no plans to reform Gettysburg or Adams County but to study local needs and learn how we may assist efficiently in doing something about the needs of this community."

Highlight of the entertainment program was a concert by the Gettysburg High School choir under the direction of Paul W. Grove. They sang five selections: "Sing and Rejoice," "I Like It Here," "Where in the World but in America," "Rain and the River" and "Carousell."

Officially sponsored by the Kiwanis clubs of Hanover and Chambersburg, the local club received gifts in which all of the clubs of Division 13 shared and the Taneytown Club, specially mentioned for its help here in the last few months, presented a gavel made of wood from the birthplace of Francis Scott Key.

Greetings From White House
In making the presentation, the Rev. M. S. Reifensnyder, past governor of the Capital District in Maryland, said the gavel is an exact replica of the gavel used to convene the first Continental Congress.

A telegram of greetings and congratulations from the White House was read by President Krape. It was sent in response to an invitation from the local club to President and Mrs. Eisenhower to attend Tuesday night's affair.

Another telegram was read from O. E. Peterson, Chicago, secretary of Kiwanis International.

A score of community representatives, presidents or other officers of Gettysburg organizations, sat at the long speakers' table across the south end of the big armory drill hall. All were introduced individually.

Approves Use Of A-Bombs Against Military Targets

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he sees no reason why atomic weapons should not be used in any conflict where they can be directed against strictly military targets.

With this news conference statement, Eisenhower backed up Secretary of State Dulles who said yesterday he thought tactical atomic weapons would be employed in any major military action involving the United States.

By law, only President Eisenhower can make a decision on use of atomic weapons.

The significance of Dulles' statement and of the President's comment appeared to be that any future war, big or little, in which the United States engages will be an atomic war to some extent.

Eisenhower, natty in a chocolate brown double-breasted suit, also dealt with these other topics.

STOCK MARKET—The President said he is just as concerned about a decline in stock market prices as he is about a price decline affecting any segment of the economy.

He has no opinion whatsoever, he said, as to whether the Senate

LARGE AUDIENCE PLEASED WITH FINAL CONCERT

An audience of 800 applauded with enthusiasm the violin and piano concert by James De La Fuente and Herbert Stessin Tuesday evening in Christ Chapel. It was the third and final concert of the Gettysburg Concert Association season.

The artists said, "We are honored to play in Gettysburg, a place of such great inspiration. It is our first visit here and nowhere have we ever had a more responsive audience. This, in itself, has been an inspiration."

Tartini's "Sonata in G minor" (The Devil's Trill) was played by Mr. De La Fuente in the opening number. The next selections, played by Mr. Stessin, were Scarlatti's difficult sonatas in D minor and G major.

Mr. Stessin played Chopin's "Berceuse," a favorite number of music-lovers, and Weber's "Perpetuum mobile" (Rondo from Sonata Opus 24), an example of perpetual motion on the keyboard which drew loud applause.

The duo concluded the first half of the program with Brahms' "Sonata in D minor, Opus 108."

Respond With Encores
In the second half of the concert Mr. De La Fuente opened with "Nocturne" by Seibelius, a rather sedate composition. The violinist, who plays on the Montaguana instrument, dated 1723, willed to him by his teacher, Albert Spalding, followed with "Scherzo, Opus 31" by Viextempe, "The Fountain of Arethuse, Opus 30, No. 1," by Szymanowski, and the "La Ronde des lutins" (The Round of the Goblins) by Bazzini.

A clever performance was offered by Mr. Stessin in "Nocturne for Left Hand Alone," by Scriabine in which he played with only one hand. His best offering of the evening, judging from the applause, was "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 11." He concluded with the "Sonata No. 1 in D minor, Opus 75" by Saint-Saens.

Recalled to the stage a number of times the artists played Fritz Kreisler's "Schon-Rosmarin" in honor of the famous composer's 80th birthday which he observed some time ago. Mr. Stessin played the second encore, "Etude" by Scriabine. The third encore was "Jamaican Rhumba" by Arthur Benjamin, played by both artists.

Cochairmen Named For Cancer Drive

Appointment of Mrs. C. William Harbaugh, Biglerville, and Attorney S. M. Rafensperger, Gettysburg, R. 2, as cochairmen of the American Cancer Society's 1955 crusade in Adams County was announced today by Elmer M. Gruver, president of the county chapter. The month-long campaign will begin April 1. Headquarters of the local society is at the tumor clinic, Warner Hospital.

"A nation-wide educational campaign is being conducted by the Cancer Society," Mrs. Harbaugh said. "Its purpose is to teach the public cancer's seven danger signals and to urge the necessity of regular check-ups to detect other symptoms, which can only be recognized by a physician."

The cancer society program is financed by the voluntary contributions of millions of Americans during its annual fund-raising drive. "This year the nation-wide goal is $24,000,000," Mr. Rafensperger explained. "To attain our local quota — which will be announced shortly — we will need the support of everyone in this county."

ROAD PROGRAM OPENS MARCH 24

A special training program for township supervisors and highway officials of Adams County will start Thursday, March 24, at 8 p.m. in the Court House. Sessions will be held weekly for six consecutive weeks and the course is free. Harold B. Vasey, borough manager of Carlisle, will act as instructor.

The first three sessions will be for township supervisors, roadmasters and other township employees who work on township roads. The first session will be on drainage, earth road maintenance and stabilization. At that session an army training film dealing with road maintenance will be shown.

The second session on March 31 will deal with black top maintenance, signs and signals. The third session, April 7, will be an illustrated talk on black top road construction. The fourth session on April 14 will deal with budget administration. Township secretaries and supervisors are invited to bring their budgets. Mr. Nickolas, district township engineer, will attend. The fifth session will be on police departments and volunteer fire companies in second class townships. The sixth and final session will deal with administrative duties of the secretaries and supervisors, as well as auditors' responsibilities.

Miss Mountain Is In College Chorus

Miss Jean Mountain, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter S. Mountain, 30 W. Broadway, is a member of the Girls' Chorus at the College of Wooster, Ohio.

Lions' Quartet Sings R.C. Song

A World War 1 Red Cross song, recently rediscovered by Mrs. Sarah Estep, New Oxford Red Cross Fund Drive chairman, will be sung by the Gettysburg Lions Quartet over WGET on four programs during the next several days.

The song was arranged for the quartet by one of its members, Paul Grove. Other members of the quartet include Dr. Clarence Bartholomew, David Blosier and Walter Meighan. The group is accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bartholomew. Red Cross Fund Drive Chairman Kenneth Johns speaks briefly in connection with the presentation of the old musical selection brought up to date in its tempo.

WGET announced that the four-minute song will be presented this evening on the "Requestful Yours" program between 5:30 and 5:45 o'clock; on "Adventures in Music" Thursday afternoon between 12:45 and 1 o'clock; on "House of Music" Friday morning between 10:30 and 11 o'clock and on "Reveille Roundup" Saturday morning between 6:30 and 6:45 o'clock.

LADIES GUESTS OF UPPER ADAMS CLUB TUESDAY

Ladies Night was held Tuesday evening by the Upper Adams County Lions Club at the Hotel Gettysburg with 125 members and guests attending. The meeting opened with the singing of America and the pledge of allegiance to the flag after which Cyrus Bucher gave the invocation.

Corsages of white and green carnations were presented to the ladies. Following the dinner group singing was conducted by Earl Fohl with David Bushman presiding at the piano. The new members introduced their wives and additional guests were introduced by their hosts.

Russel Hackman was chairman of the Health and Welfare Committee, which had charge of the program. Other members of the committee were: Samuel Ehlmann, William Lerew, Earl Garretson and Blaine Hughes. President Donald Horst presided.

Entertainment was provided by the Upper Adams Lions Chorus consisting of Clair Settle, Kenneth Lawver, Clyde Oyler, A. D. Sheely, Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, John Brown, David Bushman, Earl Fohl and Dale Knouse, accompanied by Mrs. Russel Gilbert.

MAN CHARGED WITH ARSON IN SNYDER HOUSE FIRE FEB. 4TH

A 46-year-old R. 2 man was arrested Tuesday on a charge of arson in connection with the burning of a Liberty Township house.

Jack Arms, of the state fire marshal's office, brought the charge against the man before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, according to the records at the Adams County jail.

After waiving a hearing, the man was committed to the jail at 4:25 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in default of $2,500 bail. He raised the bail later and was released from the jail at 7:10 o'clock Tuesday night.

Name Withheld
Because of circumstances in the case the man's name was withheld.

A report from the Emmitsburg Fire Department on February 4 gave details of how the fire department was called at about 1:30 o'clock on that date to a farm owned by Alton Snyder in Liberty Twp., about two miles from Fairfield on the road to Emmitsburg.

Patrons at the Tract Inn saw the blaze and believing the fire was "only about a mile away" called Emmitsburg firemen.

Snyder had purchased the farm a short time before from Lillian Pryor, Waynesboro, according to the Emmitsburg firemen's report. Firemen called the former owner who at that time, it was said, was unable to recall the name of the person to whom she had sold the farm.

Firemen reported that Alton Snyder did not know of the fire until he arrived to feed cattle in the barn late in the morning. Emmitsburg firemen said Snyder told them he had been in the 12-room house on February 3 and was renovating it. The house was destroyed and Emmitsburg firemen said Snyder estimated his loss at $20,000.

The demonstration has been arranged by James K. Stock, of the C. L. Eicholtz Co., New Oxford, distributor for Royal typewriters in this area. He has been working with Principal Guile W. Lefever and Mrs. Ruth Joseph, typing teacher at Gettysburg High. Mr. Stock expects to arrange a similar demonstration at New Oxford High School for that afternoon.

ANEURIN BEVAN IS KICKED OUT OF LABOR PARTY

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
LONDON (AP)—Laborite members of Parliament kicked Leftwing Aneurin Bevan out of their ranks today on charges of disloyalty. This isolates him as an independent in the House of Commons.

The 57-year-old Welsh orator, a former coal miner, was reported to have told a secret meeting of Labor members of Parliament he would never ask for reinstatement.

The action came on a motion to "withdraw the whip" from Bevan, meaning to remove the party label. The vote was 141-112.

This disciplinary move was sponsored by the moderate supporters of former Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee, the party's 72-year-old official leader. He has been subject to repeated attacks from Bevan and his followers in the last three years.

Reprimand Fails
Attlee's supporters rejected a last minute attempt to get Bevan off with a reprimand. The vote on that was 138-126.

The outcome was a triumph for Attlee, but it may prove a costly victory. Observers believed the split would dash the Labor party's hope of defeating Prime Minister Churchill's Conservatives in the next general election, which Churchill must call before October, 1956, and perhaps will call this year.

A Labor party announcement said: "At a meeting of the parliamentary Labor party held this morning, the Right Hon. C. R. Attlee in the chair, a recommendation of the parliamentary committee that the whip be withdrawn from Mr. Aneurin Bevan was discussed."

"Mr. Fred Lee moved an amendment to this motion: 'That this parliamentary party deplores and censures the conduct of Mr. Aneurin Bevan in challenging the authority of its leader in the House of Commons. It calls upon the whole British Labor movement to unite behind its leader in a common effort to rid the nation of the present Tory (Conservative) government.'"

"Upon this amendment being put to the meeting, it was defeated by 138 votes to 126 and the parliamentary committee's recommendation was then submitted to the meeting and was then carried by 141 to 112."

"Mr. Attlee submitted the parliamentary committee's recommendation and Mr. Bevan also took part in the discussion."

Bevan still remains his membership in the Labor party, however, until the whole party membership has a chance to vote.

11 STUDENTS WIN AWARDS

Eleven members of the Gettysburg chapter of Phi Delta Theta fraternity have received cash prizes for scholarship and campus activities. The awards were announced Saturday evening at the annual banquet, honoring the initiates, at the chapter house, and were presented by Earl E. Ziegler, treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the chapter.

The scholarship awards were: Junior Class: 1st, James Megee, $50; Thomas Weaver, $25; Sophomores: 1st, Fred Shisler, $50; 2nd, Thomas Brower, $25; Freshmen: 1st, John Little, $75; 2nd, Rennell Neikirk, $25; Open Award, John McLaughlin, $25. John Stoner won the $50 prize for the member who has done the most for the chapter. The $50 award for being engaged in the most campus activities was divided between Norman Olivier and Richard Gaenzle. A special award of $25 went to basketball star William Snyder.

McLaughlin also won the $25 J. Elmer Musselman award for having the highest scholastic average in the chapter. All of the other prizes came from a $10,000 trust fund which was left to the chapter for that purpose by Dr. John E. Meisenhelder and Samuel B. Meisenhelder.

"DANCING TO HEAVEN"

There's a dream in silk and satin . . . waiting for the band to start . . . just a someone out of nowhere . . . who has charmed my lonely heart . . . there's a smile so warm and tender . . . all aglow with brilliant light . . . that gives meaning to a moment . . . in an otherwise blue night . . . there's a face touched by enchantment . . . and a form divine and sweet . . . all of this makes up the someone . . . whom I long so much to meet . . . should I ask her what her name is . . . or if she would care to dance . . . oh, I better stop pretending . . . for I haven't got a chance . . . then the music filled the rafters . . . and I walked to where she stood . . . but I paused for just a moment . . . contemplating if I should . . . to my great surprise she beckoned . . . suddenly my dreams came true . . . for we danced our way to heaven . . . and a cottage built for two.

TWO MARINES
COMING HOME

Cpl. Richard J. Storm, son of Howard J. Storm, R. 1, and Cpl. Arthur A. Buehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Buehler, R. 1, are scheduled to arrive in San Diego, Calif., Friday with the initial group of the 1st Marine Division which has been ordered from Korea to the U. S.

Composed of about 5,400 Marines and 100 Naval personnel, the group sailed from Inchon harbor Feb. 27, more than four and a half years after the Leathernecks were first committed to the defense of the Asian peninsula.

During this period, the division participated in all 10 major engagements of the Korean conflict and was awarded two Presidential Unit Citations. Personal decorations to 1st Division Marines totaled 24,034, including 42 Medals of Honor and 214 Navy Crosses. The returning troops are aboard the Navy transports USS George Clymer, Pickaway, Talladega, Renville and Winston.

One group of fossil reptiles was so completely adapted to life in the water that they looked like modern fish.

"HONOR ROLL"

PARTY APR. 15
BEING PLANNED

The Littlestown High School Student Council members, along with their regular duties of printing the Daily Hi Talk, are planning a party for the honor roll students. The party was originally scheduled for mid-term honor students but was postponed until after the Lenten season. The party will now be held for students who make the honor roll for the third marking period exclusively.

The Student Council has set the party date for Friday, April 15, when there will be entertainment and refreshments. There will be a ping-pong tournament, jitter-bug contest, card playing contest and a beat the clock contest to be held on the stage. Contestants for the latter contest will have their names drawn from a box placed at the entrance of the auditorium. Prizes will be awarded to all winners. Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria.

Tryouts for District Band were held recently at John Harris High School, Harrisburg, with these students from L.H.S. attending: George Snyder, Hugh Roberts and Nancy Slusser. District Band will be held April 14, 15 and 16 at Millersburg, with Dr. Edwin Franko Goldman as director.

Band Holds Banquet

The local high school band members held a banquet in the high school cafeteria, with approximately 75 band members and faculty members present. A full course turkey banquet was served. Following the meal, brief remarks were heard from Supervising Principal Paul E. King, administrative assistants Lloyd L. Staveland and Frank E. Baschore, faculty members Charles E. Tresler and Paul A. Harner, the latter the director of the band. Miss Leora L. Held then showed colored slide pictures which she took during her trip to Europe.

The Senior Class of L.H.S. will hold a soup and sandwich sale on Friday, March 18, 4 p.m., in the vacant store room of the POS of A Hall, E. King St. Another project for the benefit of the class treasury is the sale of blue and gold pennants with the school seal encrusted upon them. The pennants may be purchased from any Senior.

The Junior Class of the local high school will hold a food sale on Saturday, April 2, 9 a.m., in the POS of A Hall vacant storeroom. The sale will boost the class treasury and aid with the Junior-Senior Prom which is now being planned.

Youth Group Meets

Barbara Stambaugh was junior leader at the meeting of the Junior Fellowship of Centenary Methodist Church held on Monday evening in the parsonage social hall. Susan Runkle read the Scripture and Sally Runkle offered prayer. A story on St. Patrick's Day in Ireland was read by Mrs. Albert H. Miller Jr., adult supervisor of the Fellowship. Albert Miller 3rd sang a vocal solo, "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer." A Bible quiz was conducted by Mrs. Miller and prizes received by Barbe Miller and Carl Roberts. A duet, "Jesus Loves Me" was sung by Connie Gillespie and Carla Sentz. Susan Runkle was selected to be junior leader for the meeting next Monday at 7 p.m.

The Junior Fellowship is conducting a paper drive and members of the congregation who have any scrap paper to discard are asked to contact a member of the Fellowship.

A discussion concerning the first class rank in scouting took place at the meeting of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 16 on Tuesday evening in the scout room of the POE Home, W. King St. Patrol leader, with Linda Strevig as three, conducted the opening, which was followed with the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the Girl Scout Promise. The group then sang "Girl Scouts Together" and "America." Mrs. John C. Forry and Mrs. Monroe G. Morelock, leaders, were in charge of a review on folding the flag. The meeting concluded with songs, including "Old Texas," White Coral Bells and "Taps." Troop 16 will not meet next Tuesday.

Littlestown

DOUBLE EVENT CELEBRATED BY
ROTARY CLUB

The golden anniversary of Rotary International and the 27th birthday anniversary of the Littlestown Rotary Club were observed with a Ladies' Night dinner and special program on Tuesday evening in St. Aloysius Hall. Approximately 100 were present. A roast beef banquet was served with Schott's Hotel as caterer.

Four daughters of Rotarians, Edna Ealy, Barbara Crouse, Dolores Rae Reindollar and Marilyn Spangler, presented the Rotary Annes and other lady guests with carnations as they entered the hall. The four girls also served the birthday cake. Members of the Fellowship Committee acted as the host and welcoming group. This committee includes Theron W. Spangler, chairman, Walter P. Crouse, C. Donald Bowser, Bernard F. Schott and Edward T. Richardson Sr.

The evening's program opened with the group singing of "America," followed with the invocation given by the Rev. David S. Kammerer, who also served as song leader. Dinner music was provided by Oliver Spangler, head of the Music Department of Western Maryland College. Dr. Donald B. Coover, president, extended greetings of welcome to all present. Luther D. Snyder, chairman of the Golden Anniversary Committee, which also included Ernest W. Dunbar and P. Emory Weaver, was toastmaster. Mr. Snyder introduced former members, who were charter members of the club, and their ladies, as follows: Joseph E. Milson, of town; Mr. and Mrs. E. Marine Wolf, Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wildrick Neuman, York.

Hear Talk By Dunbar

P. Emory Weaver introduced the presidents of the local service organizations, who were invited guests, including Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, president of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity; Sterling J. Wisotzkey, president of the Lions Club, and Mrs. Wisotzkey; Marvin P. Breighner, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Breighner; Chester S. Byers, president of the Littlestown Jointure Parent Teachers Association, and Mrs. Byers; Burnell R. Keagy, president of the Alpha Fire Company No. 1, and Mrs. Keagy. Two visiting Rotarians were in attendance: the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith and Harold F.

Farmers Meet In York On Thursday

A district meeting of the Pennsylvania Farmers Association will be held at the YMCA in York Thursday morning beginning at 10 o'clock.

William Veach of High Rock, a state director, will preside. Paul A. Lerew, York Springs, also a state director, will assist.

A. N. Saylor, director of research for the association, will discuss legislative issues. State Executive Secretary C. M. Wilson will speak of national issues of interest to farmers. The group will discuss farm price support, national highway program, selective service and universal military training.

Legislative committee, boards of directors and members from Adams, York, Cumberland, Lancaster and Lebanon Counties will attend.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS

The following property transfers have been filed with the office of the register and recorder:
R. L. Crouse and wife, Littlestown, sold to Allen Epley and wife, Littlestown R. 1, for $1,200, a property in Germany Twp.
Pauline E. Crouse, R. 1, sold to Irvin S. Conover and wife, R. 1, for $1,000, a property of approximately 29 2-3 acres in Mt. Pleasant Twp.

Wentz, both of Hanover.

An original writing, composed by Rotarian S. Clair Trostle, about Rotary, was read by Rotarian Frank E. Basehoar. A talk concerning "Fifty Years of Rotary International" was given by Ernest W. Dunbar, a past district governor and a past international director. "Twenty-Seven Years of Rotary in Littlestown" was given by Howard A. Stonessier, first president of the local club, which was founded on March 13, 1928.

David and Kenneth Reifsnider, Taneytown, entertained with instrumental and vocal music. They were accompanied on the piano by their mother, Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider. A film "The Great Adventure" concerning the activities of Rotary throughout the world, was shown and the program concluded with the Rotary's parting songs, for which George P. Smith was accompanist.

Next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m., the Rotary Club will entertain the members of the school patrols of Rolling Acres Elementary School and St. Aloysius Parochial School, at Schott's. The program will be in charge of the Community Service Committee, consisting of A. G. Ealy, chairman, Arthur E. Blair, Dr. Joseph R. Riden, Charles M. Weikert, A. W. Schott, William V. Sneringer, S. Clair Trostle and Luther W. Ritter.

TRAVEL TIME

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP)—Editors of the high school student newspapers don't think their parents had it so rough even if they did have to ride horseback or walk miles to school.

They noted that pupils living in Sedona, 30 miles away, travel 43-200 miles by bus going back and forth to school for four years.

An iron blade which scientists believe to be 5,000 years old was found in one of the Egyptian pyramids.

FOUNDATION THEFT

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Detectives said the thief who broke into a downtown store was either (1) a man on the prowl for a gift for his girl friend, (2) a fat man or (3) a woman. The loot consisted of two corsets.

NO WALKOUT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Golden Gate Bridge painters get a ride in a motorized cart when a day's work ends in the middle of the 4,200-foot span. Too far to walk to their parked cars.

Thousands Bow in Farewell Tribute To Late President: Washington, March 11 (AP) — In service commemorating the finest in military,
civil and religious ministrations,
the nation said its long farewell
today to William Howard Taft.

The funeral services began almost as soon as the city was astir, reached their peak of popular tribute before noon as thousands filed by his bier in the rotunda of the capitol and were not to end until late this afternoon with military burial at Arlington.

Two Teachers Wed Saturday:
Charles I. Raffensperger, principal of the Biglerville schools, and Miss Emma Kathryn Myers, a teacher in the Littlestown schools, were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. John Myers, East Berlin.

The Rev. Paul Gladfield, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, East Berlin, of which the bride is a member, performed the ring ceremony.

The couple was attended by Miss Beulah Myers, of Johnstown, sister of the bride, and Edgar Raffensperger, of Maple Shade, New Jersey, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Raffensperger is a graduate of the East Berlin High School, Millersville State Teachers College and at present is teaching in the Littlestown public schools. Mr.
Raffensperger is a graduate of Shippensburg State Teachers College, Albright College and the University of Pennsylvania and is serving his sixth year as supervising principal of the Biglerville public schools.

Pilot Charles Flies At Night:
Paul D. Charles, chief pilot at the Gettysburg airport, gave local residents a thrill last night by flying over Gettysburg for almost half an hour. His plane was equipped with the regulation lights for night flying and the field on Oak Ridge was specially illuminated to permit taking off and landing.

Entertains Officers: Mrs. Lloyd
C. Keefeauver, worthy matron of the Gettysburg Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, entertained the officers of that lodge at supper at her home on Steinwehr Ave.
Friday evening. Sixteen guests were in attendance.

Host To Class: John H. Basehore played host to his Sunday School class on a trip to Lebanon Tuesday evening.

Change of Residence: Benton Gilbert moved Thursday from the Kalbdielsch apartments to 301 Buford Ave.

district of North Carolina, put the finishing touches to the intercity meeting of Rotary clubs Monday night in the Eddis Plank gymnasium. More than 200 Rotarians from neighboring clubs attended the meeting, served by ladies of the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Marie Cadori sang several selections accompanied by Miss Mary Ramer.
Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer was master of ceremonies, Harry Kimmey of Westminster was the song leader and the Rev. Earl J. Bowman

Today's Talk

FIRST THINGS

The first important thing in the building of any structure is its foundation. Its long life depends largely upon this. It's the same with individuals. The foundation is everything. The right principles, the simple virtues, and sound ideals. They are what mark out the plan of a useful life.

Robert Louis Stevenson once wrote this: "To be wealthy a rich nature is the first requisite and money but the second." And it must be remembered that a rich nature is not something that can be purchased. It has to be earned and paid for in experience.

Many try to hurdle the first important things, but to their sorrow they learn that they are essential and no progress or happiness is possible without them. Every game has its first rules. Master them and you are ready to perfect your game, whatever it may be. I watched some golf players tee off and drive their first hole. I was reminded of all that my instructor told me when I first took up the game. I have seen the best of them play, and the greatest have simply mastered the first things.

It is amazing to learn how many useful inventions have been born from watching nature. We owe to her more than anyone ever suspects. This has come about by faithfully observing animals, plants, insects and birds. Little, if anything, is complicated in nature.
Simplicity is its first rule. How much we have learned from the spider's web! But we don't know where he got his book of instructions to weave such a thing of beauty. Nature was first in so many things that she can well be said to be our greatest inventor!

Never should we become discouraged so long as we know that we are engaged in mastering the all-important first rules or laws.
Perfection, as near as we humans can get to it, is nothing more than persistence magnified!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "A Horse Race"

Just Folks

TASK DODGER
Any trusting wife will tell you when the questioning begins, Playing bridge or gin or poker,
that her husband seldom wins.
When she asks about his fortune
at the finish of the play, Without any hesitation, "I broke even," he will say.

If his hobby is the race track and with horses keeps in touch,
The favorites always fall him;
but he never loses much.
"Did you end the day a winner?"
she may ask, and he'll reply:
"No, I lost the sixth and seventh,
but I'm just two dollars shy."

This may seem like understatement
after any friendly game,
But to seven wives, seven husbands will give answers all the same.
"I broke even," they will tell them,
with the broadest of their grins.
Or: "I lost about a dollar," but nobody ever wins.

YALTA PAPERS ARE CREATING
MANY PROBLEMS

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Yalta papers. What are they? A better question might be: Where were they? A State Department team spent years trying to find them and put them together. The main ones are together now.

They are a record of what went on before and during the February 1945 wartime Yalta conference of President Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Generalissimo Joseph Stalin.

Now that he has the papers all together, 840 pages in galley proof, printed by the government printer,
Secretary of State Dulles isn't sure what to do with them. He has 26 sets of these papers, bound in paper.

No Accurate Record

There is no word-for-word record of what was said at Yalta. No stenographer took shorthand notes.
But many of those present kept notes, some a lot, some a few.

The Yalta papers are made up of those notes, plus documents resulting from the conference, letters exchanged before it, and various State Department memoranda in preparation for it.

In the years after the war several State Department officials, in their spare time, searched for the Yalta papers. In 1953 the Eisenhower administration ordered that the gathering of the papers be made a full-time project.

Three-Man Job

Three State Department officials concentrated on the job, with help from others.
Roosevelt papers at the Hyde Park Memorial Library had to be combed over. And the researchers had to depend for some of their clues on the published memoirs and biographies of some of those at Yalta.

From what can be learned, some of the things said among the Big Three might, if published now, embarrass this country a bit. Roosevelt is said to have made a flip crack about Germany, now an American ally.

Dulles yesterday refused to say yes or no to this question: Did Churchill ask that the Yalta papers not be published? Dulles said they will be published someday — it's just a question of when.

MAY BAN KILLING OF UNLICENSED
DOGS IN POUNDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A bill to ban the killing of unlicensed dogs in pounds unless they have first been offered to certified hospitals and medical research laboratories has been introduced in the Senate.

The new vivisection measure was sponsored yesterday by Sens.
Leroy E. Chapman (R-Warren), a physician in private life, and Miles
R. Derk (D-Lycoming), a veterinarian.

Under the bill, institutions requiring dogs for research on disease or other legitimate medical and scientific purposes would be certified by the state Agriculture Department.

Control Sale, Use
The sponsors said the department also would control the sale and use of the animals as a safeguard against any abuses.

Chapman said over 100,000 dogs are killed yearly in Pennsylvania pounds. He added that almost every other state has provisions for offering such animals for scientific or educational activity.

Other new Senate bills would:
Permit hopeless or incurable mental illness as a ground for divorce and provide for support and alimony—Edward B. Watson (R-Bucks).

Include tuberculosis as an occupational disease in nursing—Eustace H. Bane (D-Fayette) and William Z. Scott (R-Carbon).

Provide for statewide uniform summons and information forms by the revenue secretary in cases of traffic violation—J. Irving Whalley (R-Somerset).

BEWARE OF HOT
CAR DEAL, SAYS
SINGER WRITER

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

If anybody wants to learn quickly about the difference between a buyer's and a seller's market, he should buy and then sell a used car.

Last spring a naive, dewy-eyed woman, who had never haggled in the Casbah, strayed into the marts of a great city in quest of a used car. The woman, who shall be called Cynthia, wanted a jalopy, a bargain heap good enough to get from home to railroad station of mornings and back again at night and to patronize
the supermarket on Saturdays.

Naturally, Cynthia wound up paying twice the budget allocation for a long, black vintage vehicle which consumed approximately one gallon of gas per foot of locomotion, but had—or so the custom-tailored salesman suavely assured her—brand new white walled tires, an extra big, powerful, new battery, and had been the treasured possession of a retired couple which used it only once a week for slow Sunday drives around the park.

It was a lovely car, just like

High School Girl
Wins Essay Contest

HARRISBURG (AP)—Wilma Ann
Vandergriff, Wellsboro High School senior, won the state "Employ-the-Handicapped" essay contest for her essay on "A Decade of Progress in Employing the Handicapped."

John R. Torquato, labor and industry secretary, said yesterday Miss Vandergriff's essay was judged best from among almost 10,000 submitted from 280 high schools. She won a $200 U. S.
Savings Bond.

The contest was sponsored by the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

Other winners were: second,
Margaret Hude, Bloomsburg; third,
Roger Steadman, Genesee; fourth,
John Ayoub, St. Veronica High School, Shillington.

Tires Held

The tires held up and so did the battery. The "honest" mileage meter stated it had traveled some 33,000 miles and, of course, when a car has gone that far you can expect it will burn slightly more oil than gasoline.
And it was just a jealous mechanic who said the frame had been cracked and warped in some accident. Anyway, there came a day, about 2,000 miles after purchase, when Cynthia went again into the marts to SELL the used car.

Suddenly, according to the custom-tailored buyer of used cars, a plethora of inexpensive cars had poured onto his lot. And nobody but nobody was buying the big ones.
Nobody was buying a long, gleaming car that used a lot of gas, burned oil, needed new tires, a new battery and also was suspected of being in an automobile accident which cracked and warped the frame.

But because Cynthia had a nice honest face and maybe would come back next spring for another used car, the kindly dealer was prepared to accept the faltering old heap for something less than half of what she had paid for it.

Cynthia has a couple of pieces of advice for other women who, not knowing a gasket from a firing pin, must acquire used cars:

When To Deal

A used car is a handy commodity only when used for a trade-in on
(a) a new car or (b) another used car. The best time to deal in used cars is when a dealer is trying desperately to rid himself of the stock at hand—i.e. just before the new models come out.

Never get into a position where you must sell a car in a hurry.

Never pay attention to either a buyer's or a seller's line of chatter.
After all, if you can't sell, you can always abandon it.

SEEK TO DELAY SUBSIDIES FOR SOME SCHOOLS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Payment of 25 million dollars in state subsidies to first and second class school districts will be delayed until after June 1 if the Senate follows House action in approving an administration program.

The deferral plan is designed to provide the state with ready cash for bills that come due before the end of the present fiscal biennium on May 31.

The House passed the plan 159-23 yesterday without debate. Most of the opposition came from Republicans.

The bill actually reduces from 348 million dollars to 323 million the current appropriation for the public instruction department.

Pittsburgh and Philadelphia have the only first class school districts.
There are 20 rated as second class districts.

Has Unusual Clause

The bill contains an unusual clause declaring the intent of the General Assembly to "restore to the Department of Public Instruction by subsequent legislation the funds withheld from it by this act."

By the same vote the House approved two other bills making nearly 25 million dollars to deficiency appropriations to several departments. More than 20 million would go to Public Instruction for payments on authority financed school construction and payments into the school employees fund.

Other deficiencies include: $2-650,000 for the State Department;
$325,000 for Labor and Industry;
$125,000 for the Internal Affairs Department; and $78,000 for the court system.

Both deficiency measures also went to the Senate.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House received a Senate-passed bill today to extend to children of Korean War veterans the privilege of attending the Scotland School for Veterans' Children in Franklin County. The bill was approved by the Senate yesterday.

Six Lettermen Among 29 Baseball Candidates At CHS; Faces 10 Contests

A group of 29 candidates, with more expected later, has reported to Coach Howard Shoemaker to begin drills for the coming baseball season at Gettysburg High School.

Included in the group of prospects are six lettermen.

The veterans are: Glenn Hartzell, pitcher; Ed Kane, catcher; Dick Hise, third baseman, and Cloyd Spence, centerfielder, all seniors; Fred Furney, first baseman, a sophomore, and Sam Staley, shortstop, a sophomore.

Other candidates include: Seniors, Ted Hise, Philip Kennell and Henry Leatherman; Juniors, Roland Keller, Rolf Johnson, Ronald Gigous, Jim Gilbert and "Skip" Weaver; sophomores, Gary Keefe, Robert Topper, John King, Ronald Hankey, Carmen Spence, Robert Stull; freshmen, Ronald McClellan, Fred Pilsinger, Kenny Cullison, David Weaver, Phil Hise, Ronald Ditzler, Tom Clapsaddle and John Sauter.

A 10-game schedule has been announced for the Warriors with the season opening Friday, April 15, at Bowling Springs.

The schedule:

April 15, Bowling Springs, away; 18, Delone, home; 21, Hanover, away; 25, Shippensburg, home; 28, Chambersburg, away; May 2, Delone, away; 5, Hanover, home; 9, Shippensburg, away; 12, Chambersburg, home; 16, Bowling Springs, home; 19 and 23, rain dates.

U.S. CAPTURES PAN-AMERICAN GAMES CROWN

By BOB MYERS

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The United States trophy chest was decorated with five more gold medals today and Uncle Sam had the unofficial track and field championship of the Pan-American Games won and locked up tight.

There are still 10 more days of action on the athletic fields of the 18-game program, but the big team from the U.S.A. has already smashed the defending champion, Argentina.

Unofficial point standings gave the United States 220; Argentina, 75½; Mexico, 39½; Cuba, 28; Brazil and Chile, 22; Venezuela and Dutch West Indies, 18; Panama, 15; Puerto Rico, 9½; Jamaica, 7; Canada and Colombia, 6; Trinidad, 5; Uruguay, 2½; Paraguay, 2; Guatemala, 1.

Tuesday Standouts

There are excellent events to come. And standout performances to recall from yesterday included:

The rousing four-way fight in the 800 meters. It found 19-year-old Arnie Sowell, of Pittsburgh, the winner in a new Pan-Am meet record time of 1:42.7; the old master of the two laps, Mal Whitfield, a faded fourth, and California's Lon Spurrier and Ramon Sandoval, of Chile, sandwiched tightly in between.

The come-from-behind run in the stretch by Oswald Suarez of Argentina to grab victory from Horace Ashenfelter, of New Jersey, in the 5,000-meter race. The time was 15:30.6.

New Discus Record

The one-two punch in the discus by Fortune Gordon and Parry O'Brien, of California, with the world record holder, Gordien, setting a new games record of 53.10 meters, or 174 feet 2½ in.

The one - two - three procession over the vaulting bar by the Rev. Bob Richards, Bob Smith and Don Laz. En route, the Vaulting Vicar equaled his own meet record of 4.50 meters, or 14 feet 9½ inches.

Finally, and not least, the speed of 20.8 seconds uncoiled in the 200-meter semifinal by Jose Tellez Conceicao, of Brazil—just one-tenth of a second off the world record held by Mel Patton.

Seek To Strengthen School Requirements

HARRISBURG (AP)—A measure to strengthen school code requirements for proper lighting and drinking water won unanimous House approval yesterday. A 209-0 vote sent the proposal, backed by the state Public Instruction Department, to the Senate.

It would give the department power to prescribe "adequate lighting" standards and provide for "a safe supply of water" in all schools. It would permit legal action against schools that provide only outside drinking water facilities.

WOODLING AND EVERS SEEKING ORIOLE BERTHS

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

Veterans Gene Woodling and Hoot Evers, who have been shuttling around baseball's major leagues for quite a while, may have found a happy hunting ground with the new-look Baltimore Orioles.

Baltimore, which finished seventh in the American League last season, underwent a vast shuffling of personnel during the winter—including a new manager, Paul Richards.

Woodling came to the Orioles in the off-season deal that sent Bob Turley to the New York Yankees. Evers was purchased from the Detroit Tigers.

Woodling, Ennis Hit

The two outfielders hope to win regular berths in the Orioles' outfield. The 32-year-old Woodling was two-platoon with the Yankees in 1954, seeing action mostly against right-handed pitchers. Evers, 34, has been a pinch hitter, of late, and also a late-inning defensive replacement.

Both players came up with clutch hits last night in Baltimore's ninth-inning rally as the Orioles shaded the Brooklyn Dodgers 8-6.

The Dodgers were leading by three runs when Brooklyn rookie Bob Darnell allowed three walks and a hit for one run and left the bases loaded. Glenn Cox relieved Darnell and Evers poked a two-run single to tie the score 6-6. Woodling then doubled to drive in two more runs.

Fifth Win For Cards

The St. Louis Cards posted their fifth victory in six starts, defeating the Detroit Tigers 5-2. Gordon Jones, Bob Tiefenauer and Presko subdued the Tigers with five hits.

The Cincinnati Redlegs edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 9-7, scoring seven runs in the last two innings.

Ewell Blackwell tested his arm as the New York Yankees downed the Philadelphia Phillies 9-2. Hampered recently by arm trouble, Blackwell threw easily and without pain in his three-inning stint. He gave up two runs and six hits.

The Milwaukee Braves tallied five runs in the third inning off lefty Mel Parnell and went on to whip the Boston Red Sox 7-3.

Ralph Kiner collected four hits in four official at bats to spark the Cleveland Indians to a 13-7 triumph over the New York Giants. The Tribe clinched the verdict with a five-run uprising in the eighth inning off losing pitcher Ruben Gomez.

Celtics Set New Game Mark At 122

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The high-scoring Boston Celtics can win the Eastern Division semifinal playoffs in the National Basketball Assn. tonight with a victory at New York.

Boston went ahead in the best-of-three semifinal series at home yesterday with a record 122-101 triumph over the Knickerbockers.

Should New York win this second encounter, the deciding contest will be in New York Saturday. Syracuse meets the survivor for the Eastern title. Meanwhile, action begins in the Western Division as second place Minneapolis opens its best-of-three semifinal set tonight with third place Rochester at St. Paul.

Minnesota, that series winner will play Ft. Wayne.

The Celtics at a new playoff single game mark with their 122 points (previous high was 109). Master-magician Bob Cousy got 30 points for Boston and rookie Frank Ramsey 25 while both were superb in all departments. Jim Baechtold topped the Knicks with 17.

Boxing Commission Moves To Protect, Clean Up 2 Sports

By BOB HOLTON
HARRISBURG (AP)—Boxing and wrestling administrative procedure had a "new look" in Pennsylvania today applied by the Democratic controlled state Athletic Commission.

The commission, headed by James H. Crowley, met yesterday and set these new regulations in a move they described as "one to give us more control" over the sports:

1. All applicants for licenses to in any way participate in boxing or wrestling will have to submit their fingerprints before hand.

2. All active participants in the two sports will have to take out accident and accidental death insurance policies, paying up to $500 medical expenses and $2,500 death benefits.

3. Each application will note any charges of criminal offenses leveled against him anywhere in the world.

4. A ban on female wrestling bouts will remain in effect.

5. A change in the size of the cards used by referees and judges in scoring decisions in boxing bouts. (These will be enlarged to facilitate writing in results for each round.)

"These measures are designed to give the commission broader powers and tighten its control of the sport in the state," Crowley said.

Joining with Crowley in the decisions were Commissioners Paul G. Sullivan and Alfred M. Klein, who stated that "all the decisions reached today were come upon by unanimous decision."

Looking to the future, Crowley said the commission expects to recommend to the 1955 state Legislature several procedural changes to be handled by the lawmakers.

"One of the suggestions to the Legislature will be changing the taxing setup on boxing program tickets," Klein said. "The way they are now it is hard to tell what tax is to be taken and when."

Questioned on a resolution in both houses calling for a legislative investigation of boxing in Pennsylvania, Crowley said:

"We, as a commission have nothing to say on this matter at the present time. That is up to the Legislature to decide."

He added, however, that "if we find some odd doings in the sport, we most certainly will look into them."

DISTRICT 7 PIAA CROWN WILL BE DECIDED TONIGHT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Farrell and McKeesport line up tonight in a game to decide the Dist. 7 Class A PIAA basketball crown, a place in the interdistrict playoffs and a possible state championship.

The winner of the game automatically will vault into the quarter finals of the Western Regional playoff with a bye in first round regional competition.

Farrell entered the district final last Wednesday by edging Midland, 58-54. McKeesport, given a good chance to upset the Steelers in early season ratings, whipped Greensburg, 74-53, last Thursday.

Greensburg was the only team to beat Farrell in the regular season.

Start Interdistrict Play

Eight Class A teams started interdistrict competition last night.

At Hershey, Reading (Dist. 3) pulled a surprise and came from behind to defeat Allentown (Dist. 11), 69-58.

At Lewisburg, Scranton Central (Dist. 2) whipped Coal Twp. (Dist. 4), 69-50, while Pittsburgh South (Dist. 8) defeated Erie Strong Vincent (Dist. 10), 67-54.

At Richland Twp., Johnstown (Dist. 6) coasted to a 75-51 win over Somerset (Dist. 5).

In Class B, Donegal (Dist. 3) defeated Unionville (Dist. 1) 62-56. Donegal faces Fountain Hill March 18 in the quarter final round.

Reading's win last night pushed the Knights into final Eastern regional playoff and a possible crack at the state championship.

Scranton Vs. Chester

Scranton Central now faces Chester (Dist. 1) which drew a first round bye March 19. The winner of that game will face Reading for the Eastern championship.

Pittsburgh South now meets Kane (Dist. 9) March 19 while Johnstown will play the winner of tonight's Farrell-McKeesport clash. The Pittsburgh-Kane winner will fight it out for the Western championship.

The western and eastern champs will play for the Class A state championship.

STOKES LEADS ST. FRANCIS TO NIT TRIUMPH

By ED WILKS

NEW YORK (AP)—The guys in the press row saved themselves a lot of time by tagging Maurice Stokes "The Magnificent" during last year's National Invitation basketball tournament. They don't have to search for a new nickname this year. Maurice is still magnificent.

Stokes, a 6-6 center with a fine shot assortment and great rebounding bounce, again was the big man for little St. Francis (Pa.) last night as the Frankies upset defending champion Holy Cross 68-64 to gain the semifinals of the NIT.

Another upset seemed in the making for a moment in the other quarter-final game at Madison Square Garden. But it was only a fleeting moment. Then second-seeded Dayton settled down and padded its attack with St. Louis errors to whip the Billikens 97-81.

That paired Dayton and St. Francis in one of tomorrow night's semifinals. Top-seeded Duquesne and No. 4 seeded Cincinnati, who reached the quarter-finals Monday, will meet in the other.

Zone Protects Stokes

Holy Cross, seeded No. 3, was beaten by Stokes and a St. Francis zone, which William (Skip) Hughes, St. Francis coach, admitted must be "about the worst zone in the country." But it served its purpose. It protected Stokes from possible foul penalties and kept the Crusaders pretty well in check.

Holy Cross just did manage to gain a 34-32 lead at the half.

Stokes had just one foul against him at the intermission. And the weak-been Frankies had just three as a team. With the second half, Hughes discarded the zone and set Stokes loose. "And when Stokes moves," says Hughes, "we move."

Stokes finished with 21 points, but really made it a victory with his rebounding and team play. The Frankies stayed within reach until 5½ minutes remained, then took a 57-56 lead and never fell back.

Dayton had too much height and too much Jack Sallee for St. Louis, which had set a flock of Garden scoring records in whipping Connecticut 110-103 in the first round.

Salle, a dandy floor man and driver, was tops with 33.

DOGS

by Farley Manning

MOVIE DOG HAS HIS DAY

Calling upon dogs throughout the country to join paws in a mighty effort, Neil, the St. Bernard of the "Topper" television show in co-operation with the National Dog Welfare Guild, has announced the launching of a canine crusade for the advancement of the dog, under—and otherwise.

Combating (s)curious dog references rampant in the American vernacular, Neil announced the founding of "The Society for the Prevention of Disparaging Remarks About Dogs." The society, in a two-pronged effort, will seek to eradicate such derogatory remarks as "a dog's life," "in the dog house," "going to the dogs," "dirty dog," and "dog eat dog."

Although the campaign will at first be directed only to this country, Neil implied international chapters might be organized. "No question," he stated, "but that English canines are still incensed over the phrase, 'Mad dogs and Englishmen go out in the middle sun.'"

Also particularly annoying to what Neil calls "our English cousins" is the use of the term "to hound" in an unpleasant context.

In summarizing his plans, Neil remarked he wished to make it plain that actually he has no bone to pick with people; he merely wished to clear the air about some unpleasant remarks dogs have been forced to take in their stride.

"After all," he explained, "how would you like it if we dogs referred to someone homely as being 'a real person'?"

To which he gave no answer except to wonder whether Neil would brand any remarks we might make about his press agent as being "catty."

Warrior Trackmen Seek 4th Straight Unbeaten Season; 5 Vets Return

Morgan Is Problem For Phils' Manager

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—One of the problems facing Mayo Smith, manager of the Philadelphia Phils, is where to fit Bobby Morgan into the Phils' lineup—and Morgan is doing his best to help come up with the answer.

Yesterday, Morgan played third in the Phils-New York Yankees game and pounded out three singles and turned in the fielding play of the game, won by the New Yorkers 9-2. In the seventh inning, Morgan made a successful back-handed stab at Bill Skowron's sizzling grounder to prevent Skowron's fourth hit of the contest.

Unbeaten in regular season meets for the last three years, the Warriors will undoubtedly find the going rough this season as they try for their fourth straight perfect campaign.

Veterans from last year's squad who are back this year include Geoffrey Langsam, high jump and hurdles, a senior; Don Smith, shotup and 880 relay; Pete Pennington, mile, and Joe Tonsel, 100-yard dash, broad jump and 880 relay, all juniors, and Joe Dearing, 220-yard dash, broad jump and discus, a sophomore.

The Warriors will be defending titlists in two big meets on the 1955 schedule. They will be gunning for their fourth straight South Penn Conference championship at Carlisle on May 14. The locals have won the conference crown in 16 of the 20 events held since 1932. On April 16 the Forney-men will defend their Shippensburg State Teachers College Invitation meet title won in 1953. There was no meet last season.

One of the big losses the current squad will have to overcome will be that of Stanton Muser, now a freshman at Gettysburg College. Muser starred in the low hurdles, winning the state PIAA event at Penn State University last year.

The schedule:

April 7, Westminster, home, 2 p.m.; 16, Shippensburg State Teachers College Invitation meet, 10 a.m.; 22, Chambersburg, home, 3:30; 29, Hanover, Waynesboro, home, 3:30; May 6, York, away, 3 p.m.; 14, South Penn meet at Carlisle, 10 a.m.; District 3 meet at Lancaster, 10 a.m.; 28, state PIAA meet at State College, 10 a.m.

Kid Gavilan Seeks His 100th Victory

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Kid Gavilan of Cuba, former welterweight boxing champion, goes after his 100th ring victory tonight against the cagey veteran, Bobby Dykes of Miami, in a nationally - televised (CBS) 10-round bout in Miami Stadium (10 p.m. EST).

It will be the second meeting between the two. The lanky ex-Texan came within a few jabs of lifting the welterweight crown from the Cuban box specialist in this same arena on Feb. 4, 1952. Gavilan won a split decision that night.

Dykes' 1955 fights include a knockout of Joey DeJohn and a decision over Andy Mayfield. Gavilan lost a close decision to Hector Constance at Miami Beach last month.

Dykes has had 118 fights, winning 97, losing 17 and drawing four times. Gavilan has won 99 bouts, lost 16 and had four draws.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

SAY MARKET HAS BEEN "CATCHING UP" WITH U.S.

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's stock market inquiry brought a warning today of a "boom to doom" danger. It also produced an opinion that the market has only been catching up with the nation's economy.

J. A. Livingston, financial editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin and writer of a syndicated column, said he saw danger of a "boom to doom" cycle in a surge of Wall Street optimism not too different, he said, from the one "which led to the poorhouse in 1929."

"To me," he said in prepared testimony, "the fact that this committee is holding hearings is a major difference between 1929 and 1955. This time, a Senate investigating committee is studying the market before a crash, not after. That's pretty good insurance against a crash."

Just "Catching Up"
Today's other witness, Wall Streeter Dorsey Richardson, told the Senate Banking Committee the stock market in its year-and-a-half price rise has been "catching up" with changes that have occurred in our economy—in price levels, in earnings, in gross national product, in technological developments, in populations . . . over the past 10 years."

Richardson, head of the National Assn. of Investment Companies, said much recent market activity stemmed from "the fact that investors with more surplus funds to invest have become more generally aware of the expansion of the economy."

"This can scarcely be regarded as undesirable or unhealthy," he added in a prepared statement.

In Wake Of Row
This testimony came in the wake of a three man row which developed yesterday when Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey told the committee, in effect, its inquiry was going too far and threatening to hurt the nation's economy.

Committee Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark.) hit back with a sharp statement saying the public is entitled to know about "the characteristics of the market" which have permitted the recent sharp break in share prices.

The committee's senior Republican, Sen. Capehart of Indiana, calling for an end to the inquiry, charged Fulbright was determined to prove stock prices have gone too high. Fulbright disputed that. Capehart said he'd put exhibits into the record to bear it out.

Stocks Feel Better
Humphrey, Fulbright and Capehart all got somewhat hot under the collar before the session ended. But the stock market was feeling much better.

It scored its biggest daily climb yesterday in more than 15 years. That recovery won back much of the previous day's losses when the market had taken its biggest one-day tumble in almost five years. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $2.90 to $154.40. Prices went up as much as $7 a share.

MANY RECALL '29 AS THEY WATCH PROBE

By SAM DAWSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sensational leaps of the bulls and dizzy dips of the bears in the stock market this week—do they foretell good times or hard?

Senators, government officials and financiers are busily debating what effect the goings-on here and in Wall Street will have on business and jobs.

They're trying to decide whether rising stock prices inspire general business confidence, or whether confidence in the future sparks the bulls; whether falling stock prices are a blow to public confidence in the whole economy, or whether fear of coming hard times generates a bear market on the stock exchange. There are even a puzzled few who ask if it's all being done with mirrors.

Far-Seeing Interest
The question of what's ahead reaches out beyond the marbled caucus room where the Senate Banking Committee is carrying on a study of the 18-month-old bull market; where government officials, brokers and industrialists give their views on a fast-rising market's benefit or danger.

You can see wonderment and worry in the intent audience that watches the inquiry. Those attending—some students, but mostly middle-aged couples from out of town—seem eager to find, if they can, a clue as to what may lie ahead for them. Whether they own stocks or not, they appear to feel they have a stake in the market's course.

Most Remember '29
It's the old story of two popular beliefs: (1) either the stock market is a barometer showing what's ahead within the next six months; or (2) the trend of stock prices in itself will affect daily lives by making times good or bad. Most of the audience is old enough to remember 1929.

Without exception witnesses agree there are many and important points of strength in today's economy which were missing in 1929.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), committee chairman, stresses that the stock market probe of 20 years ago came after the crash of 1929 and sought a cure, while today's inquiry comes while times are good and aims at preventing another such bust.

One crewman made his way to St. George, S.C., and told Air Force officials his mates had cleared the plane before it hit.

Ground crews and a Shaw Air Force Base helicopter launched a search for the two missing men.

Maj. Forrest Folles of the Civil Air Patrol here said the burned wreckage of the six-engine jet bomber was found five miles north of North. He said the plane first sent distress signals as it flew over Charleston, where a refueling operation was scheduled.

The plane, based at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., was on a training mission.

BASEBALL VETS ALWAYS READY FOR LAST YEAR

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Monroe Bey is a specialist at changing tires at $50 a piece.

That's a lot of money but the tires he changes are big ones. They weigh approximately 1,500 pounds, are a little more than six feet across, and cost from $1,200 to $1,600 each.

Most of them are used on earth-moving equipment, big machines which will tote about 45,000 pounds of dirt. Quite a few of these vehicles are being used in Kentucky now, and that's why Bey's employees, a supply firm, decided to enter the tire-changing field.

The company invested $8,000 in a truck equipped with a hoist and other labor saving tools, then sat back to wait for business.

Regular Flats
It wasn't long in coming because the bit tires blow out or go flat with about as much regularity as those on an automobile.

Bey and his co-worker, John Muller, usually spend from three to six hours changing a tire. Some come off fairly easy. Others don't. That accounts for the time variation. And time is important since the contractors figure they lose about $50 every hour that an earth-moving machine is idle.

In 2 1/2 years as a super-tire mechanic, Bey has discovered one good thing about his job. Not many tires are stolen.

WINTER VISITOR

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Most visitors choose to do their traveling to Alaska in the summer, but Edna Ferber, the author, arrived with the first snowfalls, she explained, because she wanted to get the feel of "the real Alaska."

EXPERTS CLAIM: LUXURY MAKING AMERICANS SOFT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Luxury living is making American youngsters soft say a trio of experts in muscular fitness testing. The experts came to Washington to conduct a clinic for teachers, therapists, doctors and nurses at George Washington University.

Trieste-born Dr. Hans Kraus, professor of clinical medicine and rehabilitation at New York University's Bellevue Medical Center, and his associates, Ruth P. Hirschland and Sonya Weber, have conducted studies testing thousands of children in this country and abroad.

Dr. Kraus believes muscular fitness training should begin from the time a child is a year old. He deplores the fact that many babies are clamped into a play pen as soon as they can sit up and are surrounded all through their early years in a "climate of fear."

"They should be allowed to exercise all the muscles they want to use," he said. "They should be allowed to move and stretch freely and not be kept in one place. We've found that, by the time they're five or six 54 per cent of them fail to pass the muscular fitness tests."

Europeans Better
In studies conducted with Mrs. Hirschland on some 6,500 children in New England, Austria and Italy last year, the experts found that, whereas one out of every two American children failed to pass the tests, only one in 12 European youngsters failed. They blamed American cars, buses, elevators and other mechanical aids.

"American boys and girls may be bigger and smarter than European kids, but they are often weaker," says Mrs. Hirschland.

She directs a Westchester, N. Y., exercise school and founded the "Addiepatte Ski School." No one is ever too old to limber up she believes. Her exercise school is for women over 40.

"Some of them are over 60," she said. "Their one-hour-a-week class, with plenty of the right kind of exercise, stirs up in them a feeling of well-being."

Mrs. Weber is cocreator of the well-known Kraus-Weber muscular fitness tests.

Sentence 49 Reds In Thailand Plot

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—The Thai Criminal Court last night found 49 persons guilty of plotting to set up a Communist regime in this strategic Southeast Asian country.

All 49 were sentenced to 20 years in prison, but the sentences of 48 were reduced to 13 years and four months each because of good behavior since they were rounded up in November 1952.

Five other persons were acquitted.

The defendants were accused of conspiring unsuccessfully to overthrow the government of Premier P. Pibulsonggram between 1949 and 1952. Police said in 1952 the Red network had infiltrated the government offices and even the National Assembly.

Cartoonists Enjoy "Democratic" Army

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—West German newspaper cartoonists are having fun lampooning government claims that the future German army will be "democratic" in its discipline and drill.

One cartoon shows German soldiers — wearing American-type helmets and uniforms — gathered for a lecture on gun sights. But instead of paying attention, they are sprawled over a huge couch, regarding the army as a country club.

Other cartoons compared the future and past treatment of a German military conscript.

In the old days, it was a sour-looking board of officers that greeted him. In 1965, it will allegedly be a board of bosomy females.

A truck will haul the conscript's uniform, and a maid will scrub his barracks floor. When he steps out for the evening in a natty civilian suit, not one but four Lilli Marlenes will await him at the Kaserne gate!

SEW UP HOLE IN GIRL'S HEART

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Penny Ray Raymond, 7, was reported in satisfactory condition today at University of Minnesota Hospital, where a hole in her heart wall was sewed up yesterday.

The hole had permitted blood from the veins to mix with purified blood leaving the heart.

During the 2 1/2-hour operation, a human donor, Ted Goodman, 41, was linked with the child while blood was cut off from her heart. His heart and lungs did the work for both. The actual interchange of blood took 11 minutes.

Goodman is a close friend of Penny's parents Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Raymond, of Waukesha, Wis. He was kept under observation overnight at the hospital.

Medical men said a hole as big as a nickel was closed in the muscular wall between Penny's heart chambers.

WIDOW'S MITE

CHATTANOOGA (AP)—One of the ladies at the Old Ladies Home stepped forward during ground breaking ceremonies for an addition to the home. She handed officials a ten dollar bill and said she wished it to be used toward the cost of the new building.

Impressed, officials said the money had been given her for Christmas spending by a local civic group.

MALAY SCOUTS LAUDED

SINGAPORE (AP)—Malayan Boy Scouts "can hold their own with scouts elsewhere," is the verdict of Lord Rowallan, chief scout for the British commonwealth, after a three-weeks inspection tour of boy and girl scout units in Singapore and the Federation of Malaya.

News Of Dillsburg And Vicinity

PTA TO MEET ON THURSDAY AT DILLSBURG

Northern York County PTA will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Dillsburg Elementary Building. There will be an informal discussion on the status of our organization and steps to be taken in the future. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Charles Bingham, Dillsburg, is a surgical patient in Temple University Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Grace McCreary is a surgical patient at Memorial Hospital, New York City.

Installation of new officers will be held in South Mountain Lodge No. 1200, IOOF, on March 31 or April 7. At the lodge's annual banquet in April a number of new 25-year members will be honored.

Class Will Meet

Dorcas Daughters Sunday School Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Roy Cramer. A box social will be held. Dr. H. Clifford Fox, president of Findlay College, Findlay, Ohio, has announced that a new dormitory now under construction will be named Myers Residence Hall in honor of Levi M. Myers of Dillsburg R. 3. Dr. Fox stated that the dormitory would acknowledge the long activity of Mr. Myers in the Church of God with which the college is affiliated, and his gift of $50,000 toward construction of the new hall for men.

To Extend Sewer Line

The regular meeting of borough council was held March 8 with all officers and councilmen attending except Councilman Grove Hess. Council approved a building permit for Kinter and Grove, Inc. covering the extension of buildings. Also approved was a permit for the erection of a sign for Sunshine Stores. Upon application, council also approved the extension of the sewer line north on Baltimore St. to the borough line. Plans were submitted on behalf of Howard Coover covering a suggested development of his land between N. Baltimore and Harrisburg St. Council agreed to extend whatever assistance possible.

Burgess John O. Hoffman reported on the activities of the new police officer, stating that numerous fines were levied and collected during the month, mostly on traffic violations. Councilman Ray Grove stated that plans are still being discussed concerning the improvement of W. Church St. and that there would be activity in the near future. Councilman Eugene Cromer reported on the sewer plant work stating that some grading would have to be done after completion of the new sand filters. Completion of the sand filters is being held up due to delays in securing machinery.

Antiques Show Opens

The management of the Dillsburg 4th annual Antiques Show sponsored by the Men of Salem (Barrens) Sunday School is planning for this year's show. Again this year Logan's, local antique dealers, will be represented. Twenty-two dealers from York, Harrisburg, Steinestown, Gettysburg, Hanover, Huntingdon, Shireysburg, Strinestown, Gettysburg, Hanover, Huntingdon, Shireysburg, Reedsville, Chambersburg, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Philadelphia will be represented at the show. The show will be held at the Community Memorial Hall beginning today and continuing through Friday. Doors are open 12 noon to 10 p.m. daily. A daily door prize of $5, redeemed in purchases, will be offered. Meals will be served by Citizens Hose Company Auxiliary. Admission donation is 40 cents.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs has announced a drive for three million dollars to erect the world's largest cross to be visible over a 7,500 square mile area. The 500-foot structure will be built atop Bald Knob Mountain in central Illinois. Mrs. Theodore Chapman, president of the General Federation, said the cross will be dedicated to greater unity of Christian thought and effort. Contributions may be made through Mrs. Marion Rider, president of Dillsburg Woman's Club.

Last week at the home of Mrs. William Cromer, a pay-as-you-go card party was held by Mrs. Cromer, Mrs. John O. Hoffman and Miss Orville Drake, proceeds from which will go to St. Paul's Lutheran Church Building fund. The guests who had to pay admission, buy soft drinks, coffee, etc., included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Grove Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Harter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Baird Knab, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Coulson, John O. Hoffman, William Cromer, Miss Orville Drake, Miss Frances Drake, Miss Judy Slothower, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kinter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reardon Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Fishel.

Says Witness Can Abuse Committee

SEATTLE (AP)—A federal judge has ruled that a witness before a congressional committee can vilify and abuse a committee to his heart's content without fear of prosecution for contempt of congress.

Judge George H. Boldt yesterday dismissed five of six counts of contempt of the House Un-American Activities Committee against George Tony Starkovich, 33, Starkovich later was convicted of contempt on the sixth count because he invoked the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution in refusing to answer a question about when he had moved from Bellingham, Wash., to Seattle.

The only basis for such a charge, the judge said, is when the witness refuses either to answer a question or unjustifiably invoke the Fifth Amendment.

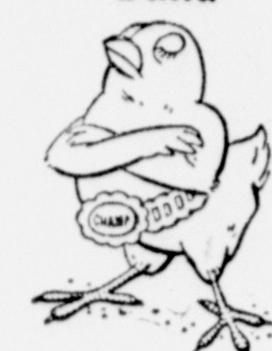

Judge Boldt said additional legislation is needed to permit contempt proceedings on grounds of misconduct.

BURY MRS. LONG

Rev. and Mrs. Amos Meyers entertained the members of the Youth Fellowship group of the New Oxford Methodist Church at a Chinese dinner last Sunday. Rev. Meyers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers, of Alton, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McMullen and son, William, visited them Sunday.

Home From Indiana

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Starry and son have returned from a visit with their daughter, Kathryn, and family, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. F. E. Coulson talked to her sister, Mrs. Harry Gabbard, Connersville, Ind. after the hurricane had passed through the section. Other than tearing down all TV antennas their section of the city was not damaged, she said.

The Wesleyan service guild will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Merle Miller on Friday night at 7:30. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Dorothy Williams will be hostesses.

The York Springs Methodist Sunday School will attend the Passion Play on Thursday night at Harrisburg. They will go by bus leaving here at 6:30 o'clock. Donald Miller is in charge of the arrangements.

The Young People of the York Springs Methodist Church are planning to hold an Easter sunrise service at 6:30 o'clock at the Scout cabin. In case of rain it will be held in the church.

COMIC BOOK BILL OFFERED

HARRISBURG (AP)—A comic publications standard act enforced by the state Board of Censors is recommended by the House Child Care Committee.

The committee yesterday forwarded to the floor for a vote next week a proposal that would outlaw the publication, distribution or sale of any comic book devoted to "fictional deeds of crime, bloodshed, lust, or immorality."

As suggested by Reps. Evelyn G. Henzel (R—Montgomery) and Marian E. Markley (R—Lehigh) the proposals would have established a three-man commission. But the commission and a suggested $50,000 appropriation was removed from the bill by the committee.

The bill would make violation a misdemeanor punishable by a $100 to $1,000 fine or a one year jail sentence or both.

Hobbies Unlimited

Mrs. Florence Wiley, Dillsburg, apparently is not satisfied with one time-consuming hobby and is now deeply engrossed in two such pastimes . . . photography and oil painting. About 14 years ago Mrs. Wiley was bitten by the "picture bug" and since that time has gradually developed not only an interesting hobby, but a small business as well.

About eight years ago, after the death of her husband, she started doing children's portrait work. She does all of her own developing and also develops pictures for others. Her equipment includes a Rolocad Camera, enlarger, a large drier and six developing tanks, enabling her to process one roll in each, or six rolls of film at one time. A unique part of this process is that an old Victrola top is used to agitate the film in its development, an idea worked out by her late husband.

In addition to photography, Mrs. Wiley, in 1950, started oil painting lessons with the late I. J. Bean in Harrisburg. Last year she studied under Miss Sherman, of Boston, who spends her summers in Harrisburg. Mrs. Wiley has painted approximately 100 canvases, 47 of which she has sold. She principally paints landscapes but has done some floral work. Prior to all this, in 1925 she painted china for a hobby, but during World War II was forced to give this up due to not being able to obtain imported china. In addition, Mrs. Wiley has done some ceramic work, including jewelry. She maintains a Hobby Room in her home to house her varied effort, with her painting studio on the second floor. Mrs. Wiley has exhibited her paintings and photographs at many shows and fairs in this area. — MRS. J. H.

leads to new products, and new products create new jobs and new purchasing power," he said.

"Our progress toward a better standard of living has been achieved through the ingenuity and efficiency and ambition of our free private industry. Our progress has been achieved by continuing improvements in technology, and continuing increases in individual productivity. Today, because we can make more and better things, we can enjoy more and better things."

He described some of the latest developments of chemical research, and showed a number of Du Pont products that have only recently been brought into commercial reality as the result of extended laboratory and field research. As evidence of the value of research in the nation's economic betterment, he pointed out that "more than half of the Du Pont Company's current sales come from products that were in their commercial infancy or totally unknown 20 years ago." He added that, for every dollar Du Pont has spent on research, it has spent about three dollars for the construction of plants to produce the results of that research.

He displayed samples of "Mylar" polyester film, which he described as "the strongest of films yet developed," with a tensile strength of 23,500 pounds per square inch.

The meeting closed with the singing of "God Bless America."

WCTU MEETS

The York Springs WCTU met at the home of Mrs. Calvin Leer, York Springs, Tuesday night. Topic of the meeting was "Wisdom." The devotions included the 23rd psalm read in memory of Mrs. W. H. Smith, oldest member of the organization, who died recently. Martha Hikes and Charlotte Leer presented a flannelgraph: "Two Bottles in the Refrigerator." Alice Hikes, a member of the Loyal Temperance Legion, played a piano solo. The next meeting will be held April 15.

Stock Market Rushing Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rushed ahead today in early dealings with substantial gains.

Gains ran from 1 to 3 points in the steels, aircrafts, utilities, coppers, electrical equipments, railroads, and oils.

Chas. Pfizer opened on 3,500 shares up 2 1/4 at 42 1/2. The interest in the stock followed announcement that the company had developed a new way to make itaconic acid for industrial use.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

FREDDIE LIKES GIRLS

Now there's nothing wrong with that. It's normal for a teenager. And, I'm as tickled about it as any mother could be. What a change . . . from sweaters and dungarees to pressed suits and white shirts. It happened almost over night.

Romance and white shirts sure led to an eye opener for me. Freddie never was concerned about his shirts before. But now . . . as the ads say, they've got to be whiter than white. And, they're not coming out that way for me. That is they weren't until Freddie took a personal interest in my problem.

Leave it to the younger generation and they'll come up with the answer. Freddie did. It turned out that the water I thought was plenty hot for washing wasn't at all. I was going through all the motions of washing, but the water wasn't hot enough to get the dirt out of the collars and cuffs in Freddie's important shirts. And, that's enough to wreck any romance according to Freddie.

He fixed that, too. He talked his dad into having an electric water heater installed for me . . . and it works too wonderfully for words. Now I have the right hot water all of the time and does it do a job! Wash is white. Dishes have a new sparkle. Even dad is pleased with the extra hot water for showers. Now, I'm for Freddie just like his favorite girl is.

Take a tip from me if you've got the same problem. There's a WHOLE OF A SALE on Electric Water Heaters at your dealer's right now. You get a Big Trade-in Allowance for your old water heater, no matter what size, type or make. Don't wait for your Freddie to make a move . . . you do it right now.

FUTURE WAR LIKELY TO SEE ATOM WEAPONS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The chances are that any future war in which the United States becomes engaged will be an atomic one, whether it is a big or little conflict.

Whether use of small, special-purpose atomic weapons would lead to the ultimate employment of hydrogen bombs is still a wide-open question.

Secretary of State Dulles told his news conference yesterday he thinks that as the effectiveness of precision atomic weapons increases it lessens the likelihood that weapons of mass destruction would have to be employed. He argued that World War II saturation bombings resulted from inability to destroy military targets precisely.

No Sharp Line
President Eisenhower, however, told a news conference last January that he felt it was not possible to draw a sharp line between tactical and strategic atomic weapons. Generally, tactical weapons are relatively little bombs for use against military targets while strategic weapons are the city-killers.

The value of atomic bombs was frequently debated in the Korean War. The United States decided against it. Officials generally argued that the weapon was not suitable against an enemy hidden in the mountains of Korea.

The essence of what Dulles said yesterday was that atomic weapons in the shape of artillery shells and small bombs for precision attack are becoming conventional equipment for U.S. armed forces. He said he imagined that such weapons would be used in any major U.S. military activity. Then he advanced his countertheory that the development of little bombs decreases the likelihood that big ones would have to be used.

His presentation of these two ideas was designed to serve two purposes.

First, he was trying to get

NIXON SPEECH ON IKE STIRS MIXED REACTION

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today he thinks that in the "unhappy event" President Eisenhower declines to run for a second term the Republicans "could develop a winning ticket."

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, emphasized he hopes and believes Eisenhower will seek a second term.

Bridges declined to take direct issue, however, with the basic theme of a speech by Vice President Nixon in Los Angeles Monday night. Nixon said: "The Republican party is not strong enough to elect a president. We have to have a presidential candidate strong enough to get the Republican party elected."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), 1952 Democratic vice presidential candidate, said in a separate interview he views Nixon's speech as "an apology for Republican philosophy and a good indication how indispensable one man is to them."

No Parallel
Nixon did not draw any direct parallel between what he called the GOP party's present minority position and Eisenhower's decision on whether to run in 1956.

The President himself took sharp issue with the "indispensable man" theory in a recent news conference. He said it was not valid.

Sparkman termed Nixon's speech an indication of concern that "the Democratic party is gaining strength."

But Bridges said GOP losses in last fall's congressional test were less than average for the party in power during an off-year election. He said the party is in a stronger position today than in either 1952 or 1954.

STOMACH GAS KEPT A LOCAL MAN IN MISERY

"I was a regular victim of stomach gas. Such loads of gas formed in my stomach, causing so much pressure in my throat, I couldn't even BREATHE right! Often I couldn't sleep due to this gas, in fact, I had horrible nights. Then, recently, I got SYS-TONE and it cleared 'out' so much gas I could breathe freely. This medicine seemed to work INCHES OF GAS out of me. Meals are a pleasure now. I praise Sys-Tone to the sky!"

CREW WILL NOT TAKE JET FUEL TO RED CHINA

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—The Finnish seamen's union announced today the crew of the tanker Aruba will strike rather than sail the ship and its cargo of jet fuel to Communist China.

The union said as a result of Nationalist Chinese threats and the U.N. ban on strategic materials to the Chinese Reds, "the ship finds itself in danger of getting involved in actions of war."

It called on the tanker's Finnish owners to "direct the ship to safer waters." The union announcement said the crew has refused to sail beyond Singapore.

The eastbound tanker is believed to be somewhere in the Indian Ocean.

Finnish shipping circles suggested the owners, the Re-Be Shipping Co., might divert the Aruba to Indonesia for reloading of the 13,000 ton cargo onto other China-bound ships.

A spokesman for the shipping company said no action could be taken yet because no strike warning had been received.

The Aruba picked up its load of jet fuel from the Romanian port of Constantza, on the Black Sea. When it sailed for Red China early this month, U.S. congressmen launched a series of protests and the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa said they would intercept the tanker.

The Finnish government said it was powerless to stop the Aruba because it was privately owned and chartered "to a foreign country"—reportedly to a Hong Kong shipping firm owned by the Chinese Reds.

SHORT SKIRTS CAUSE COMMENT AT WHITE HOUSE

By JANE EADS
WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President and Mrs. Nixon were late, and only the secretary of the treasury and the attorney general and their wives were in the cabinet procession that traditionally follows the President and first lady down the staircase at a White House reception.

But what people are talking about are the short dresses some of the women wore at the Eisenhowers' judiciary reception.

"There were a lot of short gowns," one local society reporter wrote. "Actually, when men wear formal evening attire a short dress is not correct!" Another, commenting on the undressy aspect of the traditionally formal state function, remarked: "There were numerous cocktail-length frocks, a few that had been bought some years ago."

Vice President Nixon explained his tardiness was due to the fact that his chauffeur failed to show up in time. He and Mrs. Nixon took a taxi.

High Substitutes
The cabinet members who had given legitimate reasons for being unable to attend were replaced in the procession by Foreign Operations Administrator Stassen, Civil Service Commissioner Philip Young, Budget Director Rowland Hughes and Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization Flemming and their wives.

Despite absences, the last of the White House state functions for 1954 was a gala and colorful affair, with Christmas greens, poinsettias, red carnations and glittering tree decorations adding a note of festivity. Even Mamie's full-skirted, off-the-shoulder ball gown of red tulle (ordered by mail from an ad in a New York paper) pointed up the holiday spirit, Chief Justice and Mrs. Warren, with their glamorous daughters, Virginia and "Honeybear," were on hand as were other members of the Supreme Court who only the night before had dined at the Executive Mansion.

Warren On Right
Warren had sat on Mamie's right at dinner, Mrs. Warren on the President's left at the E-shaped table in the State Dining Room, which was handsomely decorated with the Monroe gold service, the five epergnes lushly piled with some 20 pounds of

House Passes First Appropriations Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has passed its first appropriations bill of the session—a measure to provide $3,282,553,000 for running the Treasury and Post Office departments during the year starting July 1.

As approved by the House yesterday, the bill is $77,697,000 short of the amount requested by President Eisenhower. Of the total, $2,683,700,000 is earmarked for the Post Office Department, $595,818,000 for the Treasury and the remaining $1,035,000 for the Tax Court. The bill now goes to the Senate.

WHITE DEER IS FREAK

ROSCOMMON, Mich. (AP)—A small, snow-white animal caught near Roscommon has been identified as a freak deer. It is about two feet high, has legs only 10 inches long and is all white, except for its eyes and muzzle. Elsworth M. Harger, Conservation Department biologist, said it was a malformed fawn less than a year old and was not a true albino because of the color of its eyes and nose.

ASK NEW PROBE
HARRISBURG (AP)—A legislative investigation of soil, surface and water destruction due to open pit mining is suggested in a house resolution sponsored by Rep. Frank M. O'Neill (D—Clearfield).

The proposal offered yesterday cites the "weighty problem" created by destruction of soil fertility by open pit mining.

The resolution suggests the investigation be made by a six member committee of three representatives and three senators. They would report to the current session of the General Assembly.

News Of Taneytown And Vicinity

ALUMNI TO GIVE TWO NIGHTS AT THE AUDITORIUM

"Mama's Baby Boy," a three-act comedy, will be presented by the Taneytown High School Alumni March 24 and 25 at 7:45 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The play exceeds the speed limits in laughs when a very attractive widow, nearly 40, has her 18-year-old son dress and pose as a youth of 14, so that she might pass as a younger woman and marry a widower, whom she believes to be wealthy.

In turn the widower, trying to appear younger, has his 17-year-old daughter pose as a girl of 13 so that he might wed the widow, whom he believes to be rich. Neither the widower nor the widow has a cent. Everyone gets in hot water especially when the deception on both sides is discovered. How it is all worked out makes an entertaining evening.

The cast includes: Mrs. McLean, Thelma Motter; Shepherd McLean, Merritt Copenhaver; Luther Long, George Motter; Juliet Long, Arlene Naylor; Mrs. Matilda Blackburn, Marion Rue; Cynthia, Dottie Waddell; Wilbur, Crawford Banks; Sylvia, Sylvia Koonitz; Mrs. Carlotta Anglin, Catherine Martin; Max Moore, John Harner; Minnie, Ruth Anna Airing.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Anna Motter.

MISS RUNKLES COUNTY WINNER ON DAR ESSAY

Good Citizenship pins were presented to winning essayists of each Carroll County high school and the county winner at the meeting of the William Winchester Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Miss Madeline Shriver, Union Mills.

The county winner is Ruth Ann Runkles, Mt. Airy High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Runkles, Mt. Airy R. 1. Mrs. Runkles won the best essay on the general subject, "A Colonial Statesman Who Has Contributed Much to Our American Heritage."

Mrs. Allen Peeser, committee chairman, Taneytown, was in charge of the program. She briefly gave a short review of how the work of the committee started.

Two From Each School

"Pause for a moment and see the work of this committee from a national standpoint," she said. "While there are eight high schools in Carroll County, if all the high schools in Maryland run the Good Citizenship contest, as do these in Carroll County, think what pulling power this contest has for good government in Maryland. And if all the high schools in the United States were to run the contest, think of its national significance."

The contest was held recently under the sponsorship of the William Winchester Chapter. From each school, two students are selected by students and teachers. A questionnaire was filled out by each contestant and an essay written on a given topic. The essays were judged and one selected from each school as winner. One essay was selected from the eight schools of Carroll County as county winner. One essay is selected as state winner and its will be presented with a $100 government bond at the state DAR Congress in Baltimore.

Essays Are Read

Mrs. Peeser introduced the winners and their mothers, after which the essays were read and Mrs. Wesley A. Pickens, regent, presented the pins to each contestant. Certificates of award from the national society will also be presented at graduation time to the following winners: Janet Millender, daughter of Mrs. Charles Millender, Hampstead High School; Sandra Mummert, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle E. Mummert, Manchester High School; Shirley Blacksten, daughter of Mrs. John E. Blacksten, New Windsor High School; Virginia Peiffer, daughter of Mrs. Webb Peiffer, Sykesville High School; Martha Bankert, daughter of Mrs. John A. Bankert, Westminster High School; Sylvia Koonitz, daughter of Mrs. George Koonitz, Taneytown High School.

Gretchen Reese, daughter of Mrs. Paul Reese, a student at Elmer Wolfe High School, Union Bridge, was unable to be present to receive her award.

Miss Runkles received a corsage of roses and carnations. Contest judges were Mrs. Rena Pieggle Kennedy, Mt. Airy, and Dr. George S. Wills, Westminster.

LIONS TO MEET
The semi-monthly meeting of the Taneytown Lions Club will be held next Thursday evening at 6:29 o'clock at Taney Inn.

Annual "Feed" For Kiwanians Tonight

Lt. Governor Donald Harvey, Fort Royal, Va., was in charge of the weekly meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club last Wednesday evening at Taney Inn.

Mr. Harvey gave a resume of the activities of the various clubs in the ninth division. "Taneytown should be very proud of their club because it is one of the leaders in the district," he said.

The annual Kiwanis oyster and shrimp feed will be held this evening at Crouse Motor Sales Garage, East Baltimore.

Harmon Albough, president, was in charge of the weekly meeting. The invocation was given by Raymond Wright, Key Clubbers present at the meeting were Donald Unger and James Wolf.

STUDENTS SEE FILM
A movie, "David and Bathsheba," was shown to the student body of Taneytown High School this afternoon. The movie was a project of the Future Homemakers of America.

WILL REGISTER BEGINNERS FOR 1955-56 TERM

Pre-school registration for children who will enter the first grade of the Littlestown Jointure in the fall for the 1955-1956 term will be held on Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25, 8:30 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m., at Rolling Acres Elementary School, E. Myrtle St.

At the time of registration, the birth certificate of each child must be presented and the vaccination certificate if the boy or girl has one. It is suggested that the children whose last names begin with any letter from A to N be registered on March 24 and the remainder of the children be registered on March 25. Each child should be accompanied by a parent or responsible person. The registration will be conducted by John H. Riley, elementary principal; Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, school nurse, and the first grade teachers. The first grade pupils will have a vacation on March 24 and 25, due to registration.

Lions To Meet
The second March meeting of the Littlestown Lions Club will be held on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the social hall of St. John's Lutheran Church. The program will be in charge of the membership committee, composed of the Rev. William C. Karns and J. Harvey Pettyjohn.

Midweek praise and prayer service will be held in the Assembly of God Church, W. King St., on Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Vet Shows Pictures
Harold Cool, W. King St., who was discharged from the Army in January, entertained by showing slide pictures at the March meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran Church, held on Monday evening at the church.

Mr. Cool, who served in Korea and Japan, showed colored slides which he took in those countries. The meeting opened with the group singing the Brotherhood hymn. Glenn E. Unger led a responsive reading and prayer was offered by the pastor, the Rev. William C. Karns. A brief business session was conducted in charge of the president, John C. Porry. A report was heard from Edgar E. Yealy, secretary. President Porry appointed the following committees to serve for the next meeting on Monday, April 11, at the church: Refreshments, Clair A. Beamer, Kenneth Bortner and James U. Bowers; entertainment, George Trump, U. Ray Study. Refreshments were omitted at the March meeting due to Lent.

Anniversary Edition
The 25th anniversary edition of "The Littleton Echo," the Littlestown Junior-Senior High School publication, has just been released. The six page anniversary edition contains eleven pictures, with one full page of photographs of happenings of special significance from 1930 to 1955, as well as many interesting news items.

A special feature appearing in the edition is a facsimile of the first issue of "The Littleton Echo," printed in December, 1930. A photo of Paul E. King, present supervising principal of the Jointure, who has been principal of the local high school since 1923, is printed in the facsimile of the 1930 issue.

There is an article written on Lloyd L. Stavelly, "The Littleton Echo" adviser and administrative assistant at LHS. Mr. Stavelly has been associated with the school paper since its founding in 1930. Miss Shirley M. Bixler, editor-in-chief, has a special article extending greetings to the readers. There is an item written about Miss Bixler, a senior. The masthead used for the first time in the anniversary edition, was drawn by Elizabeth Ann Crouse, '55.

Editors of "The Littleton Echo" from 1930 to 1955, include: 1930-31, Francis C. Lindaman; 1931-32, Helene Kindig Bankert; 1932-33, Charles A. Kiwanis Club

Krape was Kiwanis president in 1946, rose and sent a spokesman forward with a testimonial gift for the president of the club being chartered.

MacDonald Benton, representing the new club building committee of the district, presented gifts of a banner, the American and Canadian flags, a president's kit, secretary's kit and lapel button and a goong to the new club. The formal acceptance was by Clyde Markle, secretary of the new club.

Hanover and Chambersburg club officers were called forward to receive ribbons to attach to their club banners indicating they sponsored the Gettysburg Club. Benton then conducted a ceremony in which President Krape added a golden link to a long chain representing the clubs of the district.

A chain of 4,000 links is sought by international convention time in Cleveland in June, Benton said.

9th Charter This Year
The official presentation of the charter by Wagner followed making Gettysburg the 205th club in the district and the 3,985th Kiwanis Club. It is the ninth to be chartered in this district this year.

Then with the introduction of the members of the local committee in charge of arrangements, the program closed with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the benediction by Rev. Reifsnider.

The local arrangements committee was headed by David McDannell and included Lester Blair, George A. W. Stouffer Jr., Carl S. Schutt, Charles Graham, Harry Koenig

EXTEND SPENDING AMOUNT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Election campaign expenses and receipts above $300 would have to be reported in detail by all candidates under House-approved legislation before the Senate.

The proposal would double the present $150 limit on sums that can be spent or received without accounting. It passed the House, 208-1, yesterday.

The U. S. match industry estimates the average adult in the nation uses 143 books of matches a year.

NEW TEACHER BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—A bill providing for an additional $5 for every year of service for teachers retired before May 1, 1951, was introduced in the House yesterday. It is supported by the Pennsylvania State Education Assn. To receive the extra pension teachers would have to agree to act as substitute teachers if physically able when requested to do so.

Sweden has one two-wheeled motor vehicle for every 24 inhabitants and believes that no other country has so high a ratio.

WARREN CHEVROLET A BRAND NEW IDEA! CURB-SERVICE DISPLAY.

5 DAYS ONLY—MARCH 16-17-18-19-20

(OPEN EVERY EVENING) — (OPEN ALL DAY SUNDAY)
THIS AD IS WRITTEN FOR THOSE PEOPLE WHO HAVE THE DESIRE TO OWN A NEW CAR BUT DON'T THINK THEY CAN AFFORD ONE.

WARREN CHEVROLET offers this new idea—A complete lineup of 30 new 1955 Chevrolets will be displayed in front of our showroom for your undisturbed inspection.

You Will Be Able To See For Yourself That
IT IS FAR EASIER TO OWN A NEW CHEVROLET THAN YOU THINK

Be sure to come out to Warren Chevrolet to look over and examine these cars to your hearts content — stand off and enjoy the new beauty-climb in and out, bounce on comfortable foam rubber seats — open the hood and deck covers — try out all the new gadgets — enjoy yourself thoroughly—

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT A PARTICULAR CAR — ASK A SALESMAN — HE WILL ANSWER YOUR INQUIRY — AND NOTHING ELSE

POSITIVELY NO HIGH PRESSURE SELLING!
(IN FACT NO SELLING OF ANY KIND)

IF YOU DECIDE TO BUY THE DECISION WILL BE YOURS AND YOURS ALONE—

—NO ONE WILL TRY TO SELL YOU!—

REMEMBER—
★ Our appraiser will quote you a price for your car as a trade-in on a new Chevrolet—only if you want it!
★ Our salesman will quote you monthly terms, only if you wish.
★ And to help you decide on the car itself, you can take a demonstration ride all by yourself—
★ Ten-to-one it's cheaper to buy a new 1955 Chevrolet than it is to buy a late model used car.
And monthly payments would be less, too — but that's for you alone to decide.

YOU WILL BE STRICTLY ON YOUR OWN
